

Polen Capital Launches International Small Company Growth Strategy

Boca Raton, FL -- Polen Capital announced today that it launched the Polen International Small Company Growth Strategy. The Strategy is managed by the Small Company Growth Team and Rob Forker is the lead portfolio manager. Rob joined Polen Capital in 2018 and has significant international investment experience, including 10 years at Loomis, Sayles & Company.

In describing the Polen International Small Company Growth strategy, Rob said, “Our goal is to preserve and grow client assets by investing in concentrated portfolios of companies that we believe can deliver sustainable, above-average earnings growth. We are excited about the potential of the International Small Company Growth strategy given the long runway of growth for these innovative quality companies.”

Polen Capital CEO Stan Moss adds, “Further extending our opportunity set to international small companies with the philosophy that we have deployed for over 30 years is consistent with our evolutionary process. We believe the strategy is distinctive and will add value to client portfolios.”

ABOUT THE SMALL COMPANY GROWTH TEAM

The Boston-based Polen Capital Small Company Growth Team is focused on finding high-quality small growth companies that we believe can deliver double-digit earnings per share growth over the next five years while incurring low-to-moderate risk. The team looks to generate returns by identifying dynamic companies in the fastest growing sectors that offer the potential for sustained, above-average growth in revenues and earnings. The team has a combined 65 years of investment experience.
